ROBESON COUNTY ATHLETIC SPOTLIGHT

ST. PAULS HIGH SCHOOL

Raven Jacobs
Volleyball, wrestling, track

Raven Jacobs is a three-sport athlete at St. Pauls and her senior season included playing volleyball in the fall, wrestling in the winter and running on the track team in the spring. Jacobs' plans on the track were cut short due to the COVID-19 outbreak. Jacobs says she will be attending UNCP in the fall, and hopes to continue her athletic career at there in any of the three sports she competed in at St. Pauls.

LUMBERTON HIGH SCHOOL

Honiah Locklear
Soccer

Honiah Locklear earned all-county, all-conference and all-region marks as a defender for the Lumberton girls soccer team during her career and was a N.C. scholar athlete all four years. Locklear is student body president, a member of the National Honor Society and a member of several other clubs and organizations. She will attend NC State in the fall to major in biology with the desire to become a pediatric neurosurgeon one day.

The McDonald's Robeson County Athletic Spotlight will be honoring spring sports seniors that had their final seasons cut short. To nominate a player, send a head shot as well as info on the student-athlete to jbym@robesonian.com.
